Introducing Restoration Biology: The NEW Science of Longevity

With a reverence for the foundations of Mother Nature and the wisdom of the ages, adding the newest and best of the science of longevity, we introduce the missing pieces to Restoration Biology - for reversing YOUR biological age! Your "real" age can be younger than your chronological age. You can look younger, feel younger and be younger than you really are.

Topics include:

- We're Starving On Full Stomachs
- Miracle Nutrition From the Sea
- The Magic of Minerals
- Anti-aging - Reverse YOUR Biological Age
- Let Food Be Your Medicine & Medicine Be Your Food
- Super Charge Your Immunity & Metabolism

The body doesn't know its chronological age - it only 'acts' its biological age.

It will perform miracles by the minute when honored with the appropriate raw materials.

The ForeverGreen commitment is to provide the best raw materials known to man.

Restoration Biology is a way to honor the intelligence of the body, where age really is just a number, leaving your biological age up to you.

... So, how old are you?

Meet the Speakers

Dr. William J. Hennen
Author, Speaker

Dr. Hennen received his Ph.D. in Bioorganic chemistry at Utah State University. After graduation he worked as a researcher/professor in natural product based drug design and development for thirteen years followed by twenty years as a research director and consultant in the nutritional supplement industry.

Dr. Hennen is an international speaker on nutrition and disease prevention through dietary supplementation. He is known as a thorough researcher possessing high ethics, and as a manager who is committed to teamwork and the development and empowerment of others. He is the author of over forty books, reports, patents and peer-reviewed papers in bioorganic, medicinal, and nutritional chemistry.

Lorene Davies
Author, Speaker, Entrepreneur

Seeking answers to her own health challenges has kept Lorene on the cutting edge of health and healing modalities for over 27 years. Over time, her philosophical view has evolved from 'fighting the war on disease' to embracing health, our birthright, pleurably!

Years of research, study and classes, along with personal experience, has given Lorene a broad understanding of the human body's nutritional needs. That along with 10 years of in-depth work with essential oils, uniquely qualifies her as a messenger in teaching others about generating vibrant health and wellness. Lorene's passion for inspiring others to improve their own health naturally, comes through loud and clear in her book, Nature's Pharmacy, and in her presentations!
